

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Plaintiff, vs. CARLOS SANCHEZ and SHEILA FOX, Defendants.)))))))))))	8:05CR421 ORDER
---	---	--------------------------------------

This matter is before the court on the motion to continue by defendant Carlos Sanchez (Sanchez) (Filing No. 20). Sanchez seeks a continuance of the trial of this matter for at least sixty days. Sanchez's counsel represents that counsel for the government has no objection to the motion. Sanchez has submitted an affidavit in accordance with paragraph 9 of the progression order whereby Sanchez consents to the motion and acknowledges he understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act (Filing No. 19). Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Sanchez's motion to continue trial (Filing No. 20) is granted.
2. Trial of this matter is re-scheduled for March 13, 2006, before Chief Judge Joseph F. Bataillon and a jury. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between January 4, 2006 and March 13, 2006, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason that defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A) & (B).

DATED this 4th day of January, 2006.

BY THE COURT:

s/Thomas D. Thalken
United States Magistrate Judge
